The Milwaukee Performing Arts Center will have the Nutcracker put on by The Milwaukee Ballet for 2 weeks, starting December 10th. "A Christmas Carol" will be showing at the Pabst Theater in December, as well. ice skating at Red Arrow Park is another fun activity to do around the holidays. You can look here for events around the Milwaukee area

With a lot more events going on this year than last year, try to go out and do something new. Maybe start a new tradition with your family. ## A Message From Jay

Welcome to December!

It's always hard to believe how quickly another year goes by. No snow on the ground and it looks like we won't have any for at least the first week of December.

I went to the Packer's game this past Sunday with my wife Sara and sons, Jake and Zach, along with other friends, and we witnessed a great victory over the Los Angeles Rams. The Packers are 9-3 heading into a much needed bye week, before taking on the Chicago Bears on Sunday night December 12th.

The Bucks have won their last seven games in a row heading into their game Wednesday December 1st against the Charlotte Hornets. They are getting healthier and playing much better at this point of the season.

The Marquette Golden Eagles are off to a 7-1 start under new head coach Shaka Smart. Their best win of the season was a close win over then #10 ranked, Illinois. The Wisconsin Badgers men's basketball team is off to a 5-1 start with their next game on December 1st against Georgia Tech. The Badgers best win of the season so far, was over then #12 Houston on their way to winning the Maui Invitational. Wisconsin and Marquette play their annual state rivalry game Saturday, December 4th.

I hope that every one is excited for a nice winter season and I hope each and every one of you have an enjoyable Holiday season and a Merry Christmas with your family, friends, and loved ones. Take the time to slow down and embrace this special time of the year. All the best for a Happy and Healthy 2022!

Be well,
Jay
