February TV

We are already one month into 2024 and usually February is award season for things on TV, movies and music. The Golden Globes happened earlier in January. The Grammys will be held February 4th. With Taylor Swift, Olivia Rodrigo, and Miley Cyrus all looking to take home multiple Grammys. The Academy Awards will be held March 10th. Some of the movies looking for multiple Oscars include, Oppenheimer, The Holdover, Barbie, and Poor Things.

For sports, the NBA All-Star weekend will be held in Indianapolis, February 16th-18th. Giannis received the most votes in the league and will be joined by teammate Damian Lillard as a starter for the Eastern Conference team. LeBron James led the Western Conference in votes. The NHL All-Star game will be held in Toronto on February 3rd.

Lastly, of course, the Super Bowl will be held in Las Vegas on February, 11th. It is a rematch of Super Bowl 54. The San Francisco 49ers are facing off with the Kansas City Chiefs who are looking for their third championship in five years, and fourth overall. The halftime performance will be Usher and the national anthem will be sung by Reba McEntire.

Please enjoy the award shows and sports in February!

A Message From Jay

Welcome to February!

The month is certainly starting out with some very mild temperatures in to the 40s. I got to go ice fishing the second week of January. We traveled up to Mercer, WI on that Thursday for a long weekend. We stayed at my friends cabin with his son, my son Zach, and seven of their friends. I had not been ice fishing in many years, and it was nice to have this experience again. We caught some perch and a few bluegill.

The fishing highlight was a 34 inch tiger musky that was brought up from one of the many tip ups we had set up out on the ice. We had a great time ice fishing and hanging out in the cabin, which was heated with a wood-burning stove. A lot of good food, drink and laughs were had by all! I'm hoping to get invited again next year.

Enjoy the mild weather while it's here.

Be well,
Jay

Directions

1. Place chorizo, green onions, red bell pepper, poblano chilies, and jalapeno in a cold skillet. Turn heat to medium-high. As skillet comes up to temperature break up chorizo into very small pieces. Continue cooking until sausage is browned and peppers are barely cooked through, 4 to 6 minutes. Remove from heat. If sausage releases a lot of grease, mop up some with a paper towel.
2. Mix cream cheese, sausage mixture, Monterey Jack cheese, Cheddar cheese, and sour cream in a bowl. Transfer to a shallow, heat-proof baking dish.
3. Set oven rack about 6 inches from the heat source and preheat the oven's broiler.
4. Broil on high until browned and bubbly, 5 or 6 minutes.
