Helping to take February 2025 the confusion out of retirement!

February TV

We are already one month into 2025 and February is typically award season for TV, movies, and music. It also has some big sporting events too. As far as the entertainment, the Golden Globes happened earlier in January. The Grammy's are being held February 2nd. Taylor Swift, Kendrick Lamar, and Sabrina Carpenter are all looking to take home multiple Grammys. The 97th Academy Awards will be held March 2nd. Movies looking to take home multiple Oscars include, Dune: Part 2, Emilia Perez, Wicked, and The Brutalist.

For Sports, the NBA All-Star Weekend is February 14th-16th. They changed the format this year to have 4 teams of 8 compete against each other with one of the teams being the winner of the Rising Stars challenge. Giannis has already been named a starter and Damian Lillard will be joining him in San Francisco. There will be no NHL All-Star game this year, instead there is an international tournament starting February 12th. Last but certainly not least, the Super Bowl will be held February 9th in New Orleans. It is a rematch from two years ago with the Chiefs facing the Eagles. The Chiefs are looking to be the first team to win 3 Super Bowls in a row. The half time performance will be Kendrick Lamar and the national anthem will be sung by Jon Batiste.

A Message From Jay

Welcome to February!

It looks like we will be starting the month with somewhat milder temperatures than we had in January. I went up north to Mercer, Wisconsin earlier January with my son Zach and his friends for the second year in a row. We had an extended weekend of ice fishing. It's always fun to hang out with the guys! We didn't have a lot of success catching fish, but managed to keep entertained. One of the guys brought a four wheeler that we took out on the ice and even pulled guys in a sled behind it.

A couple of the guys brought ice shanties with heaters and all the gear we needed. We even had a few games of baseball on the ice, which was a lot of fun! Plenty of card games and dice games were played too. We had plenty to eat and drink and camaraderie. Have a good February! 1. Preheat the oven to 400 degrees F

Directions

- 2. Combine tomatoes, olive oil, garlic, basil, salt, and pepper in a baking dish. Make a well in the center, and drop in the Boursin cheese.
- Bake in the preheated oven until the cheese starts to lightly brown, 35 to 40 minutes. Use a fork to mash the cheese and then stir some of the tomatoes into it.
- Garnish with fresh chopped basil or sliced green onions, and serve immediately.
