Festival Update

With Covid restrictions starting to end in June it is great to see things opening back up. The Brewers are currently at 50% capacity and plan to be at full capacity by at least June 25th. The Bucks recently announced that for the rest of the playoffs they will be at full capacity. Although some of the usual festivals like German, Polish and Festa Italiana are cancelled for this year, many will make their anticipated return this year. Waukesha and Washington County fair will both be back this year in July. State Fair will be back in its usual early August time frame. Summerfest is postponed until September and will not be the normal 11 days consecutively. Instead it will be 3 weekends in a row of Thursday– Saturday. Some of the headliners are Dave Mathews Band, Guns and Roses, and Miley Cyrus. If you are curious about other events please check out this link <https://onmilwaukee.com/articles/milwaukee-summer-festival-guide-2021>. Enjoy the weather as it starts to get nice out and have a great start to your summer.

Spicy Grilled Shrimp

- ½ cup olive oil
- ¼ cup sesame oil
- ¼ cup chopped fresh parsley
- 2 tablespoons hot sauce
- 2 tablespoons minced garlic
- 1 tablespoon ketchup
- 1 tablespoon Asian chile paste
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1 teaspoon black pepper
- 3 tablespoons lemon juice
- 2 pounds large shrimp, peeled and deveined
- 12 wooden skewers, soaked in water

Directions

1. Whisk together the olive oil, sesame oil, parsley, hot sauce, minced garlic, ketchup, chili sauce, salt, pepper, and lemon juice in a mixing bowl. Set aside about 1/3 of this marinade to use while grilling.
2. Place the shrimp in a large, resealable plastic bag. Pour in the remaining marinade and seal the bag. Refrigerate for 2 hours.
3. Preheat an outdoor grill for high heat. Thread shrimp onto skewers, piercing once near the tail and once near the head. Discard marinade.
4. Lightly oil grill grate. Cook shrimp for 2 minutes per side until opaque, basting frequently with reserved marinade.

A Message From Jay

Welcome to June!

The summer officially begins later this month but we've already had some summer-like weather. My wife, Sara, and I flew out to Washington DC to visit my daughter Becky in mid May. Becky is an Occupational Therapist at a large rehab hospital and specializes in head trauma.

Thursday night we went for dinner at a nice Mexican restaurant Taqueria Al Lado and enjoyed a nice meal and some cocktails. A couple of Becky's coworkers joined us, which was nice.

On Friday we rented a car and drove about an hour outside the city to Sugar Leaf Mountain in Maryland. We got in some good exercise with a 7 mile hike. Our reward was a charcuterie board and a bottle of wine at the Sugar Leaf Mountain Vineyard. Friday night we had a tasty dinner at a South American themed restaurant, Mercy Me.

Saturday morning we hiked around Theodore Roosevelt Island and also relaxed in the afternoon at Gravelly Point Park. That evening we had a cookout at Becky's apartment complex with a few of her friends and I brought some Hungarian smoked sausage from The House of Homemade Sausage in Germantown along with some Spotted Cow beers.

Sunday morning we had brunch at the Bluestone Lane Logan Circle Café and met another friend of Becky's. We walked around some of the exclusive neighborhoods of DC including Kalorama Rd NW, which is where the Obamas' have a home.

Monday morning Sara and I had a relaxing breakfast at the Commissary restaurant. Our last stop was a place we visit every time we are in DC. The iconic Ben's Chili Bowl that has been a DC Staple since 1959. I got 6 halfsmoked sausages with chili to go and packed them in the cooler for our flight home. The weather was beautiful in DC and Becky always shows us a great time. Can't wait to visit her again this fall. Enjoy your start to summer!

Be well,
Jay
